

Programme Overview

LL.M. “International Economic Law“

Institutions:	University of Glasgow Leuphana University Lüneburg
Degree:	Dual Degree LL.M. in International Economic Law (Leuphana) LL.M. depending on specialisation (UofG)
Application Deadline: & Tuition Fee	Please find current information here: UofG Leuphana
Start Date:	October
Duration:	2 years full-time
ECTS:	120
Programme Overview:	First year (Leuphana) Six compulsory modules (International Law, International Economic Law, European Law, European Economic Law, International Private Law, European Private Law) each 10 ECTS Second year (UofG) Students can choose their specialisation: Corporate & Financial Law/Intellectual Property & the Digital Economy/ International Commercial Law/International Competition Law & Policy/International Economic Law/International Law/ International Law & Security The Master's thesis will be written in Glasgow

Programme Overview

LL.M. “International Economic Law“

Admission Requirements:

Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.), a Bachelor's degree with predominantly legal components, the „Erstes Staatsexamen“ or an international equivalent

English Language Requirements:

English = first language

IELTS Academic overall 6.5 (no component lower than 6.5)

TOEFL 92 (no subtests less than 22, speaking not less than 23)

Cambridge C1 Advanced: B minimum

Cambridge C2 Proficiency: C minimum

PTE Academic 68, minimum 60 in writing

Additional Information:

Applications can also be submitted if the Bachelor's degree is not yet completed. Applicants must prove a successful course completion of 81% of the required total performance (according to the study programme 180 or 210 ECTS).

