

Programme Overview

Erasmus Mundus Master „Global Markets, Local Creativities“

Institutions:	University of Glasgow (UofG) University of Barcelona University of Uppsala University of Göttingen
Degree:	Triple Degree: Track B: International Master in Global Markets, Local Creativities (UofG and University of Barcelona) Master of Arts in History of Global Markets (University of Göttingen)  Track F: Master in Global Markets, Local Creativities (UofG) Master of Social Sciences in Economic History (University of Uppsala) Master of Arts in History of Global Markets (University of Göttingen)
Application Deadline: &amp; Tuition Fee	Please find current information here: UofG
Start Date:	September
Duration:	2 years (full-time)
ECTS:	120
Programme Overview:	Mobility 1 (Glasgow) Global Varieties of Capitalism in Historical Perspective The Globalised Economy  Mobility 2 (Barcelona) - Track B Companies in Emerging Sectors Creative Cities: Intervention Models and Entrepreneurial Dynamics Family Business: Innovation and Globalisation Port Cities in Historical Perspective  Mobility 2 (Uppsala) - Track F Modern Natures: Conflicts and Transformation Sustainability of Welfare Policies in the Modern Era Sustainability of Financial Markets in the Modern Era Sustainability of Economic Thought

Programme Overview

Erasmus Mundus Master „Global Markets, Local Creativities“

Programme Overview:

Mobility 3 (Göttingen)

Global History of Marketing and Mass Consumption
Immigrant Entrepreneurship
Topics in Globalisation

+ optional courses at each university

Admission Requirements:

2.1 Honours Degree or or non-UK equivalent in a relevant social science

Track B and F are required to have an academic background in the social sciences, including:

History (also Economic History and other subfields)

Economic Majors

Business Majors

Social Sciences (sociology/political science/anthropology)

Communications (if 60+ credit points in History/Sociology/Business/Economics/or closely related)

International Relations (if 60+ credit points in History/Sociology/Business/Economics/or closely related)

Anthropology (if 60+ credit points in History/Sociology/Business/Economics/or closely related)

Other Humanities (if 60+ credit points in History/Sociology/Business/Economics/or closely related)

English Language Requirements:

IELTS 6.5 with no subtest less than 6.0

TOEFL 90 with minimum of R 20, L 19, S 19, W 23

CPE/CAE 176 overall, no subtest less than 169,

Alternatives: undergraduate degree from English speaking country, masters degree from English speaking country, degree taught in English in non-English speaking country

Please find further information here:

UofG | Uppsala |
Barcelona | Göttingen